

Healthmark Industries Announces The 2013 Decontaminator Of The Year Award

Healthmark Industries has announced that Jhosue Vasquez is the winner of the 2013 Decontaminator of the Year Award. Vasquez is a CSSD Technician at the Mount Auburn Hospital located in Cambridge, MA. He has 10 years of experience in the Sterile Processing field.

The Decontaminator of the Year Award is given out annually by Healthmark Industries. This award recognizes an individual that demonstrates exceptional understanding of the importance of decontamination in their workplace environment. The winner receives $1,000 toward expenses to attend the annual IAHCSSM Conference and also receives an engraved plaque.
