

Hypothermia System

CSZ's unique Head Wrap and patient vest provide an effective non-invasive method of whole body cooling. The Head Wrap was designed to promote rapid cooling to help reduce brain swelling. Other uses include core body warming of patients during off pump cardiac surgery and, when used with a localized cooling device, can help to effectively eliminate or significantly reduce the symptoms of migraine headaches.

Source URL (retrieved on 02/01/2015 - 1:28am):

http://www.surgicalproductsmag.com/product-releases/2006/04/hypothermia-system?qt-recent_blogs_articles=0&qt-recent_content=0