

Asset Management Systems

The GETINGE T-DOC Asset Management Systems are the instrument and equipment tracking systems are designed to help facilities maximize productivity and make purchasing decisions based on statistical information accumulated in the computer database. Users can track and manage surgical instrumentation and its use, by investing in a complete tracking system that utilizes bar code capabilities. With T-DOC facilities can calculate utilization reports that help eliminate unnecessary purchases, decrease replacement purchases, track and reduce repair costs, and increase staff productivity.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/28/2015 - 3:21pm):

http://www.surgicalproductsmag.com/product-releases/2006/06/asset-management-systems?qt-most_popular=0