

Intraoperative Ultrasound Probes

These surgical probes are ergonomically designed for intraoperative examinations. The 8814 is a surgical biplane transducer with precise needle guidance for biopsies, RF ablation and other interventional procedures. The 8815 probe offers compact size, easy handling and a multi-angled needle guide for easier access to difficult to reach areas.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/26/2015 - 6:59pm):

<http://www.surgicalproductsmag.com/product-releases/2007/03/intraoperative-ultrasound-probes>