

Shoulder Positioner

The Arthroscopic Traction Assist provides proper positioning and suspension of the shoulder during arthroscopic surgery. This prefabricated device eliminates pressure sores caused by traction. It is made of orthopedic grade polyethylene plastic and is foam lined for patient comfort. The autoclavable device is complete with eyelet, positioning cord and a pre-sewn cotton stockinette. These positioners are available in three sizes and are left and right specific.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/29/2015 - 11:42am):

http://www.surgicalproductsmag.com/product-releases/2007/07/shoulder-positioner?qt-most_popular=0&qt-recent_content=0