

Table Attachment for MIS Hip Surgery

The MAQUET MIS Hip Attachment enhances the functionality of MAQUET surgical table by making it possible to perform minimally invasive total hip replacement with greater surgical access. This positioning device helps speed recovery times by enabling surgeons to make an incision of only two to three inches compared with longer incisions typically required for a hip operation. In addition, the attachment's carbon-fiber radiolucent traction bar and pelvis plate permits unobstructed imaging of the lower extremities.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/27/2015 - 5:13pm):

<http://www.surgicalproductsmag.com/product-releases/2008/02/table-attachment-mis-hip-surgery>