

Needlestick Prevention Device

The innovative Needle-Trap system helps protect healthcare providers from accidental needlestick injuries that can occur with disposable syringes. The Needle-Trap system features an integrated safety mechanism that is a component of the self-adhesive syringe label. This simple, economical design allows the needle to be safely and easily secured after it has been used and enables healthcare providers to use the same injection technique and disposal process as before.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/29/2015 - 7:47pm):

http://www.surgicalproductsmag.com/product-releases/2008/11/needlestick-prevention-device?qt-digital_editions=0