

Equipment Transport System

The Amico Clinical's ETS Equipment Transport System allows equipment that is in operative use by a patient (i.e. Infusion pumps) to be transport along with the patient through a hospital, across elevator thresholds or around hallway corners. The ETS can be easily moved by one nurse from the service column in the OR to the patient bed for transportation to the ICU. This system keeps the patient and the equipment stable during transport, even over obstacles.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/29/2015 - 4:19pm):

http://www.surgicalproductsmag.com/product-releases/2008/12/equipment-transport-system?qt-recent_videos=0