

Positioner For Steep Trendelenburg Procedures

David Scott Company introduces the Butterfly™, a gel bean bag positioner for use in Steep Trendelenburg procedures. According to the company, features include:

- A patient-side integral layer of Blue Diamond® Gel.
- Six securing straps supported by welded cleats which secure the positioner to the table.
- The ability to provides full arm access for IV.
- Gel wings that support and cradle the patient around upper arm and shoulders.
- A gel hand flap with no need to tuck hand.
- GU style cutout that won't interfere with surgical site for GYN.
- A wide head cutout for improved anesthesiologist access.
- A replaceable one-click valve system.
- Construction of polyurethane bladder.

For more information, visit www.davidscottco.com [1]

Source URL (retrieved on 01/30/2015 - 5:34am):

http://www.surgicalproductsmag.com/product-releases/2011/07/positioner-steep-trendelenburg-procedures?qt-recent\_videos=0

Links:

[1] <http://www.davidscottco.com/>