

Anesthesia Shield

Published on Surgical Products (<http://www.surgicalproductsmag.com>)

Anesthesia Shield

The Access II Pemco Inc. is designed to be used as an anesthesia screen for cardiac surgical procedures, providing protection for the surgical patients facial area from potential injury by staff and instrumentation during the procedure. The device also allows the anesthesia personnel to have access to the patients face and neck during the procedure for the purpose of adjusting or manipulating the TEE probe, endotracheal tube, central lines, etc. as needed intra-op.

For more information, visit www.pemcomed.com [1].

Source URL (retrieved on 01/25/2015 - 5:47pm):

http://www.surgicalproductsmag.com/product-releases/2011/12/anesthesia-shield?qt-recent_blogs_articles=0

Links:

[1] <http://www.pemcomed.com/>