

Renaissance

Mazor Robotics

Mazor Robotics' Renaissance is designed to transform spine surgery from freehand procedures to highly-accurate, state-of-the-art robotic procedures, with less radiation—even for minimally invasive surgery (MIS), scoliosis, and other complex spinal deformity cases. It is powered by clinically validated technology and meant for a wide range of clinical applications. The hardware and software tools enable a variety of spine procedures.

For more information, visit www.mazorrobotics.com [1]

Source URL (retrieved on 01/31/2015 - 6:47pm):

http://www.surgicalproductsmag.com/product-releases/2013/02/renaissance?qt-digital_editions=0&qt-recent_videos=0

Links:

[1] <http://www.mazorrobotics.com/>